Money Won't

Money won't move a mountain,

And money won't calm the sea no it won't,

And money won't buy you one more day when one more day is all you need.

Some of them breathe for silver.

And some of them live for gold,

And some of then die for diamonds and kill for blood, blood red ruby stones.

Money won't heal the heartbreak,

And money won't cure disease, no it won't,

And money won't buy you back your life when the lord says its time to leave.

Some of them dream of riches,

And some of them pray for more,

And some of them lie and steal for it then walk on, walk on back through that door.

Money won't move a mountain,

And money won't calm the sea no it won't,

And money won't buy you one more day when one more day is all you need.

IT WON'T CURE YOUR HEARTBREAK IT WON'T BUY YOU ONE DAY GOLD WON'T SAVE YOUR SOUL NO NO NO NO NONOOOO GOLD WON'T SAVE YOUR SOUL

Well money won't buy you back your life when the lord says its time to leave.
